REPORT ON Anti Bolshevist Publication.

Made by

D. I. Sullivan

Forwarded by

Sir,

The attached is a copy of an anti Bolshevist and anti Jewish publication entitled "The Grave makers of Russia". The book was first published in Germany by Alfred Rosenberg who in its columns endeavoured to warn Germany against adopting the bolshevist form of government by pointing out the awful consequences of Bolshevism in Russia. The book is strongly anti Jewish and the writer blames Jews for inflicting Bolshevism on Russia.

The first Shanghai edition of which the attached is a copy was translated from German into Russian, edited, and published by Nicholas Sotnikoff, an Russian ex-army officer, of 45 North Szechuen Road. It is being sold at 50 cents per copy.

In addition to translations from the original German book the attached copy contains an editorial by the editor explaining that the Jews are using Internationalism, Communism, and Freemasonry to further their ends in attaining world mastery. There is also an appeal to the Russian people calling upon them to awaken and overthrow the Jews and restore the former Russian reigning house and thereby gain food, freedom, clothing and peace, in exchange for starvation and death at the hands of the Extraordinary Commission. The writer warns against programs, murders, and slaughter but advocates a boycott of the Jews.

My informant states that the book will also be printed in English, French, Chinese, and Japanese, but at present this lacks confirmation. ~~Future~~ Future numbers of the book will be put on sale at the publisher's convenience.
